JAPANESE CONTROL NEEDS CONSENT OF CHINA, EDEN STATES

Invaders Seek Authority Over Shanghai's International Settlement While Their Conquering Armies Continue to Report Further Breaks In Defence Systems Shielding Nanking

LONDON, Nov. 22 (CP-Havas).—Foreign Secretary Eden told the House of Commons today Great Britain would not grant Japan's request for authority in Shanghai's International Settlement "without the consent of the Chinese Government."

The statement was made in reply to Wedgwood Benn, Labor, former Secretary for India, who asked the Government's intentions regarding Japan's request to settlement authorities yesterday for control of the Chinese maritime customs, postal and telegraph services and the courts.

The conditions under which the International Settlement in Shanghai is administered are the land regulations (agreed upon between China and the various foreign governments) which cannot be modified without consent of the Chinese Government," Mr. Eden said.

DUKE OF GUISE SEEKS THRONE

Issues Proclamation of His Intention to Reconquer France Peacefully

PARIS, Nov. 22 (AP).—The exiled Duke of Guise today proclaimed his decision "to reconquer" the non-existent French throne as police pressed their search for leaders of a secret Rightist revolutionary committee.

A spokesman for the Surete Nationale said until now the investigation into the apparently widespread armed movement to overthrow the Government had shown no connection between royalists and the National Committee of the Revolution.

All surete agents in Paris and large forces in the provinces were working on the investigation, in which raids already had uncovered enough arms and ammunition to equip a small army.

WOULD BE KING JEAN III
The 5,000-word manifesto issued by the sixty-three-year-old pretender who seeks to rule France as King Jean III, left no doubt he planned a pacific conquest. A spokesman insisted use of the word "reconquer" did not mean military action.

Political observers considered as "practically sure" the chances of bringing back to France the monarchy which was overthrown at the end of the Franco-Prussian War in 1870. French royalists were believed to number less than 50,000.

Guise's proclamation equally condemned Communism, Fascism and the French parliamentary system, declaring a monarchy was the only solution for internal disorders and foreign dangers.

China's Plea at Brussels Parley for Help Against Japan Wins No Response

Conference to Adjourn With Report Admitting Failure To End Conflict

NO COERCIVE ACTION PLANNED AT PRESENT

BRUSSELS, Nov. 22 (CP-Havas).—China's appeal for eleventh-hour aid against Japan today failed to swerve the Brussels Conference from all but final approval of a report admitting failure of its efforts to end the Far Eastern conflict.

Only refusal of the Chinese delegate to vote before consulting his government prevented the conference from approving the document drafted by the United States and Great Britain and then adjourning for an "indefinite recess."

Final action was deferred until Wednesday, when it was thought the Chinese delegate, Dr. V. K. Wellington Koo, would have heard from Nanking.

APPEALS TO CONFERENCE
Dr. Koo appealed to the conference to reconsider its admission of failure, declaring an "abortive ending" of this conference will unwittingly augment the already prevailing sense of general insecurity.

Adoption of the report of the conference's failure might "indirectly place small or weak states more at the mercy of the strong and aggressive and make all peace-loving states feel that they are being deceived."

B.C. Electric Pays City Large Sum for Bridge Maintenance

Mayor Andrew McGavin Congratulated by City Council for His Efforts in Securing $2,500 For Work on Point Ellice Structure

NEWS that the B.C. Electric Railway Company, Ltd., intended to pay the city $2,500 as the company's share of repairs to Point Ellice Bridge was received with enthusiasm by the City Council last evening. H. S. Pringle, solicitor, was ordered to execute a release on behalf of the city to be exchanged for a cheque from the company.

A hearty vote of thanks was passed to Mayor Andrew McGavin for bringing negotiations to a successful conclusion. Since last January, he has been actively interested in securing settlement of the claim.

"It is an exceptionally good piece of work," remarked Alderman James Adam.

"We secured payment of the claim only through your persistence, Mr. Mayor," declared Alderman W. Lloyd Morgan. He proposed the hearty vote of thanks tendered Mayor McGavin.

On motion of the franchise committee, the council rescinded a motion of October 19, calling for a plebiscite on transportation here. It was explained by Alderman Archie Willis that the B.C. Electric Railway Company, Ltd. did not under any circumstances intend to continue operation of the street railway system after expiration of the franchise next year.

Resignation of Alderman Dr. J. D. Hunter, who still had a year of his term to serve, was received. Resignations of Trustees W. C. Moresby, K.C., and Mrs. D. L. MacLaurin were also filed. M. Frank Hunter, returning officer, was asked to arrange by-election matters in connection with the vacancies.

A letter of congratulation to the Northwestern Creamery, Ltd., on the company's twenty-fifth anniversary, was ordered dispatched. Several aldermen announced their intention of inspecting the plant today and tomorrow.

A recommendation from the sanitary inspector, fire chief and building inspector that an old frame building at 824 Douglas Street be demolished, was adopted by the council.

SEEK NEW AGREEMENT

The public works executive and special salary committee were asked to deal with a proposal of Civic Employees' Protective Association, for a working agreement covering employees of the waterworks, parks and boulevards, Garbally Road shops, maintenance, garbage and street cleaning departments.

On recommendation of the relief committee, the council sanctioned payment of $3.50 to each family unit and $1.20 to single persons on relief as a Christmas allowance. The Provincial Government has promised to bear its share of the grant.

Also at behest of the same committee, the council decreed that from December no payment would be made for taxes on behalf of relief recipients unless taxes were delinquent. It was decided, at the same time, to ask the Provincial Government to reconsider its demand to the relief committee that payments be suspended.

The city solicitor was asked to arrange for printing of the city's debt refunding plan, for presentation to the Provincial Legislature. Costs will be met out of the sinking fund.

WINDOWS BROKEN

On learning that a number of basement windows had been broken at the grain elevator, the council ordered them boarded over. Alderman Morgan suggested grain chutes also be covered to prevent entry of boys.

A claim from Mrs. M. Mahoney for assistance in paying a bill for injuries sustained by her husband, John J. Mahoney, when he slipped and fell on a Government Street sidewalk on November 8, was referred to the Mayor and city solicitor for action. A claim from Mrs. Ellen C. Vesey, who slipped and fell at Mary Street and Esquimalt Road on the same date, was judged to be a matter for the B.C. Electric to deal with.

By ballot, Jack O'ard, seventeen, was engaged on three months' probation as a junior clerk in the tax collector's department.

Sale of a lot on the southeast corner of Hillside Avenue and Bridge Street to Mrs. Molly K. Dent by lands and zoning committee, for $300, was confirmed by the council. A roadway permit was also granted for the property. Land at the southerly end of Roberts Street, was re-zoned as a light industrial district, the council decided. A tender of $50 from J. Arendell to demolish a dwelling on Belleville Street, was accepted.

CONSIDERS PLANS FOR ARCTIC STATION

and on the dividing line between the Eastern and Western Arctic. Plans would call for the station to be operated in the winter as well as summer, with day observations added to the outside world.

Naturally, the Dominion Government views with favor scientific expeditions to the Arctic islands from Great Britain and the United States because the results of their researches are shared with Canada. A Government-scientist accompanied the MacMillan Arctic expedition along the east coast of Baffin Island this summer.

It is believed many undergraduates in science from Canadian universities would be glad of the chance to work during their holidays in the Arctic. One or more of the larger universities might organize expeditions if there were a centre to which they could go.

MAKING PLANS FOR FESTIVE SEASON HERE

Junior Chamber Receives $450 From City for Yuletide Events

TO OFFER PRIZES FOR COMPETITIONS

Elaborate plans for the holiday season in Victoria are being made by the Junior Chamber of Commerce with the assistance of the city. It was announced at last evening's meeting of the chamber organization.

Amounts totaling $450 have already been received from the anniversary committee to be expended in the province, socializing the industry.

The House recessed at this point, after a brief exchange between Premier Pattullo and Mr. Winch, in which the Premier pointed out the Government could have blocked the issue in debate, had it wished, by virtue of prior motions on the order paper. Mr. Winch adjourned debate, still having the floor.

COAL DIVISION

Rising at the evening sitting, Mr. Winch read the coal section of the Macdonald report at length. The report showed, he said, that coal rights on Vancouver Island worth $4,000,000 had been given away by the Province in 1924, along with a bonus of $750,000, for construction of the Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway; that these coal rights had been sold in 1910 for $11,000,000, and subsequently capitalised at $22,362,695, a sum the commission found to be $18,000,000 over and above any commercial value; and that over-capitalization, over-depreciation, if not also withdrawal of profits by secret reserves, had been complained of in the report.

For an hour Mr. Winch cited excerpts from the report, dealing with the capital structure of the Canadian Collieries (Dunsmuir), Ltd.; the Western Fuel Corporation and the Crown's Nest Pass Coal Company, which indicated, he averred, that large profits had been taken out of the industry. In years in which substantial losses had been shown on their books. Over a period of several years, Canadian Collieries and Western Fuel had disclosed net profits of $1,931,106, whereas the commission had found that the real profits had been $7,136,927 for the two companies combined. That Canadian Collieries could have paid a uniform dividend of 6 per cent, and Western Fuel 8 per cent if they had been recapitalized at a reasonable level.

DECORATE COLLEGE

One of the proposals of the committee to decorate Victoria College with colored lights, etc. Jack Hartree reported he could secure 1,000 feet of colored lights, on loan, to carry out this suggestion.

Following a discussion on parking on Broad Street, between View and Port Streets, W. Bellex was named chairman of the traffic committee to look into the matter. It was suggested that the chairman communicate with Chief of Police Thomas Heatley, who might see fit to interview the City Council, with respect to having parking forbidden on the west side of Broad Street, between Port and View Streets.

The committee will also communicate with the merchants whose establishments front on the west side of Broad Street.

On Monday, December 20, the group will hold a closed dinner meeting, at which a humorous debate and other entertainment features will be held, Ed Glover reported.

The board of directors was authorized to draft plans for a membership drive, which will be presented at the next regular meeting.

THE BULLETIN

It was announced that The Bulletin of the Junior Chamber would again be published twice a month. Jack Hartree, the editor, asked the support of all committee chairmen in giving their reports to him for publication.

A Cowx was named chairman of a new committee to be called the "Know Victoria and Vancouver Island Better" committee. It is to instruct members in salient facts regarding the island and take up the study of different sections at each meeting.

Proposed amendments to the Junior Chamber of Commerce constitution will be discussed by the directors, who will report back to the members.

PRESS FOR ACTION ON FUEL REPORT

alization method, without reference to true cost; a wasteful, uneconomic system of distribution had grown up; oil companies were allegedly in control of ownership of more than 90 per cent of all retail gasoline outlets, with virtually monopoly rights. The Government had known this for a year; and had done nothing, he said.

Mr. Winch declared the report showed that the Imperial Oil Company set the price for gasoline in British Columbia, and its prices were followed by other distributors. As against prevailing prices, the commission had found that gasoline under present conditions could have been sold at Vancouver for 23 cents per gallon, with only freight added at all other points in British Columbia; and that with elimination of duplication and other costly services, the price could be brought down to 18 cents at Vancouver, and that figure plus freight elsewhere.

COMPUTES SAVINGS

On this basis, said Mr. Winch, the people of the province "had been fleeced" of $36,828,402 beyond the price of gallonage sold since 1924, at the computation of 23 cents per gallon as just price; or of $61,306,697, if the 18-cent rate were accepted. Oil company assets had expanded stock split allowed, an effective return to one controlling concern now amounted to 40.74 per cent, Mr. Winch declared.

"We say that on the basis of this report, the people of British Columbia have been fleeced, overcharged, legally robbed put if you will, of $36,828,402 since 1924, and that if you take the other figure, 18 cents a gallon, that the sum would be $61,306,697. Had that sum, being the difference between what gasoline was sold at and what the commission says it was worth, come to the Government, it would have been sufficient to have paid off one-third of the provincial debt; and if the Government was in possession of similar revenues for twenty-five years, it would be enough to pay off the entire debt," Mr. Winch asserted.

HITLER SEEKS CLOSE UNION WITH AUSTRIA

the old German "Zollverein," which was an economic union providing free trade within the Zollverein's borders.

Linked with this point is Germany's claim to the right to determine the sovereignty of German minorities in other European countries, particularly Czechoslovakia.

COLONIAL QUESTION

On the colonial question, it was said, Hitler indicated he wanted Germany's pre-war colonies returned at some future time without compensation, but with the understanding no military or naval bases would be established to threaten British interests.

Informed sources understood Lord Halifax made no reply, observations or comment on Hitler's questions but merely informed the chancellor he would transmit them to his Government.

Inter-ministerial conversations on Halifax's report will continue tomorrow. Meanwhile Foreign Office experts will study it and draw up a report, to be transmitted to the Cabinet, which will discuss the matter fully on Wednesday.

Wednesday's Cabinet meeting will therefore probably be one of the most important in years, since it will have to decide on the future of Anglo-German discussions and whether or not a reply is to be sent to Berlin.

FLEETINITE IN AUSTRIA

Greatest difficulties were believed to revolve around the question of a plebiscite in Austria to determine the problem of Anschluss. Some British Cabinet ministers were reported convinced Anschluss is inevitable, while others remained opposed since they thought the idea would probably be opposed by France, and all were agreed on the necessity for Anglo-French solidarity.

The German position, as outlined to Lord Halifax, was said to consist of five main points.

1.—Germany may return to membership in the League of Nations if all charges that the Reich was responsible for the Great War are eliminated, if the connection between the League Covenant and the Treaty of Versailles is definitely abolished, if Article XVI of the Covenant (providing sanctions against an aggressor), is completely rewritten, and if rules laid down for the treatment of national minorities are revised to Berlin's satisfaction.

2.—Germany is willing that Czechoslovakia shall remain independent, but under a federal system which would grant local autonomy to the provinces.

NO SPECIFIC DEMANDS

3.—Without making specific demands of Great Britain with regard to Austria, Germany is said to ask that London refrain from any diplomatic or military aid to Vienna under any circumstances. Satisfaction of this request, it is generally agreed, would be the equivalent of giving Germany a free hand in Austria.

4.—At a later date, Germany will ask British support for a return of the Reich's pre-war colonies, with the understanding no military or naval base will be established in them which might threaten British interests or line of communications.

5.—The Berlin Government is said to be ready to offer to mediate the Sino-Japanese conflict in a way which would safeguard British interests in China.

Outlines Proposed Legislation Aimed At "Loss Leaders"

Well-Attended Meeting of Victoria Retail Merchants Endorses Plan of Provincial Association To Counteract Unfair Business Practices

A REPRESENTATIVE meeting of Victoria retail merchants that filled the small Chamber of Commerce auditorium went on record last evening as endorsing the principle embodied in proposed legislation to eliminate "loss leaders," and promote the interests of both themselves and their customers.

An outline of the proposed legislation was given to the meeting by George R. Matthews, Vancouver, secretary of the provincial organization, who was introduced by Goldwyn Terry, president of the Victoria branch of the association. Considerable discussion followed the presentation of the matter, and although some members of the audience voiced the opinion that the suggested bill was quite inadequate, when put to the meeting for endorsement, the plan met with almost unanimous approval.

HISTORY GIVEN

In his preamble, Mr. Matthews recalled that the move to get a Food Products Minimum Loss Act put through the House originated three years ago at the provincial offices of the Retail Merchants' Association in Vancouver. Its object was to counteract unfair business practices, such as misleading advertising, the carrying on of bankrupt stock in closing-out sales for the purpose of selling new merchandise under the guise that it was bargain merchandise, etc. He informed the retailers that he would address the Provincial Council of Women on the same matter at their luncheon meeting today, and that the matter would probably be carried by a delegation from that body to the Provincial Cabinet the following day.

At the outset, he particularly stressed that the object of the proposed bill was to minimize the loss that any merchant was permitted to take on food products. There was no intention to set a minimum price, but rather to prevent the exploiting of the retail food business of British Columbia by making it an offense for the large institutions to sell food products at a loss greater than 5 per cent above the invoice price.

There would, he said, be no justification for such an act if it were not that the chain and department stores were able to sell food products even below their cost price by making up this loss on profitable lines that had been purchased for sale purposes only.

ESTABLISH COST

The difficulty of establishing the meaning of "cost," was touched upon. The Retail Merchants' Association recognized that the ordinary definition of cost did not go far enough, a view concurred in by some of those who subsequently took part in the discussion.

If the retail merchants complained against advertising all goods at low prices, the association would have no fault to find. But when they advertised just one line far below cost, and took advantage of the drawing-power of this to sell other lines at exorbitant profits, then it was time for the authorities to step in and prevent the public from being hoodwinked.

"In asking for this legislation we are not anxious to take anyone into court. We shall be more pleased if we are able to get the merchants' co-operation, for the purpose of the bill is to give our association power which will enable it to clear retail business," the speaker said at one point. The passing of such a bill would mean that British Columbia had passed the first enabling legislation in Canada for the protection of the retail trade.

GRADING BEEF

A summary of the various sections of the proposed act was given. An effort was also being made to secure legislation that would require that beef be sold and advertised according to grade. The purpose of such grading would be to have regulations compelling the retailer to represent honestly the quality of beef offered for sale.

It was not intended to increase the retail price, but would give to firms handling the higher grades of beef a measure of protection, for inferior grade beef selling at very much lower prices could not then be passed off, as sometimes happened, as better quality beef selling at cheaper rates. This legislation was not intended to remove the cheaper meat from the market, but only to prevent its being marketed as higher-grade beef.

Mrs. Pike, Wife Of Church Vicar, Is Laid at Rest

The death occurred at Moose Jaw last week, after a short illness, of Mrs. Minnie Annetta Pike, wife of Rev. Frederic Pike, vicar of St. Barnabas' Church, who supplied for Rev. S. Ryall, rector of St. Luke's Anglican Church, Cedar Hill, during the latter's absence in the Old Land last summer.

Born in Slough, Buckinghamshire, England, Mrs. Pike came to Canada nearly twenty years ago, and had lived in Moose Jaw all that time. Prominent in church duties, she assisted her husband in performing his parishes duties, and made many friends during her stay on Vancouver Island.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Pike is survived by a son by a former marriage, Ralph Hanslow, aged nineteen.

CHIEF JUSTICE FLAYS LIBELER

Reluctantly Consents to Private Settlement of Duke Of Windsor's Suit

LONDON, Nov. 22 (C.P.).—Lord Chief Justice Hewart defended the good name of the Duke of Windsor today in approving a private settlement of his libel suit against the author and publishers of "Coronation Commentary."

Lord Hewart asserted the case involved "foul, cruel libel" of the Duke which a jury might have thought deserved a "thoroughly efficient horse whipping."

WILL PAY DAMAGES

Sir William Jowitt, appearing in court for Windsor, announced William Heinemann, Ltd., publishers, and Geoffrey Dennis, author, would pay a "substantial sum" for damages and costs. The defendants tendered an apology and admitted statements in the book, dealing with the Duke's brief reign as King Edward VIII, were unjustified.

Sir William said the "substantial sum"—the amount was not disclosed—would be given by the Duke to charities in which he took a "deep interest" while King and Prince of Wales.

WRITTEN APOLOGY

"Coronation Commentary" was withdrawn from sale in the United Kingdom and a "note of apology" written after the Duke protested the book last April. It was sold widely in Canada and the United States, however.

It dealt with the reign and abdication and commented on what it characterized as "misleading, fudging and meddling" during the reign.

The Lord Chief Justice said he agreed "reluctantly" to the private settlement, submitted to him for approval. He hinted a jury trial of the suit might have produced grounds for a criminal prosecution.

TRADE WITH THE UNITED KINGDOM

Indications are that the verdict in next Monday's Federal by-election will record Victoria's attitude on the British preferences contained in the Ottawa Agreement. These are threatened by the proposed Anglo-American trade agreement which is to be negotiated, the proposal being that the Liberal Government at Ottawa will be favorable to American goods, or at least a considerable proportion of them, enjoying the same privileges in the British market as those of Canada. In other words, the concessions won by the former Bennett Government would, if the proposal is implemented, be nullified to the extent that the United States would be able to compete on equal terms with Canada in a market which, for some years past, because of the preferences enjoyed, has meant a notable gain for this country's export trade.

Those who, by their votes, express the desire that a Government supporter should represent Victoria at Ottawa will be giving tacit approval to a proposal that handicaps should be imposed on Canada's export trade to the United Kingdom. That would be a definite blow to intra-empire trade. It is a move that is being opposed by Australia, as is officially announced by Premier Lyons, but no such opposition has been voiced by Mr. Mackenzie King. On the contrary, the latter, according to cable dispatches at the time, placed the American viewpoint before the Imperial Conference in London last Spring. He is willing that Canada should either surrender some of her preferences to benefit American export trade, or else not oppose the United States being given in the British market preferences equal to those enjoyed by this Dominion.

No doubt the argument inspiring the Liberal Party is that Canada will gain in the United States market, by negotiating a new reciprocal agreement, what she will lose in the British market by any surrender of the advantages she now enjoys through the British preferences. The latter have given substantial advantages to Canada's export trade, and those advantages are accumulating all the time and adding to this country's favorable trade balance. Mr. Mackenzie King seemingly is willing that this country should sacrifice the substance for the shadow. It is for the people of this constituency to consider, in deciding upon their attitude in next Monday's by-election, if they are willing to neutralize the British preferences bestowed by the Ottawa Agreement so that the United States may secure enhanced trade advantages. They will be supporting this sacrifice, in principle at least, if they vote for the Liberal candidate. On the other hand, they will be voicing their opposition by voting Conservative.

BRITISH LABOR

The Atlantic Monthly, perhaps disturbed by the conflict going on in the household of American labor and especially the question of the obligations which American labor unions should or should not assume, and believing that England, in her regulation of industrial conditions, is "two full decades in advance" of the United States, thought it "expedient to turn to the Old Country for advice." The Editor of The Atlantic therefore wrote to the head of the London School of Economics asking for "an English spokesman, fair-minded and experienced," and was referred to Mr. John Hilton, Professor of Industrial Relations in the University of Cambridge.

As a result Professor Hilton, speaking out of a wide experience as apprentice mill mechanic, foreman, manager of engineering works, lecturer, technical writer, statistician, civil servant, and educator, discourses in the November Atlantic on "The Responsibility of a Trade Union." His discussion is limited to British trade unions, but every trade union secretary on this side of the water who cares to read the article may be assured that he will find in it much food for thought.

The union that counts and endures, in Professor Hilton's opinion, is not necessarily the one that is "forever squaring up to its employer." A union that hopes to flourish must be a friendly society for its members when ill-health and hard luck and old age come along. It must be an advice bureau, a court of occupational justice keeping the peace among its members, a suggestion bureau that can tell the employer how and save waste or make a claim that will justify a higher wage. A union that operates on these lines lives by services rendered. It is not "a frenzied thing that lives by crises." The ideal trade union is not the one in which the union secretary is a union boss. The secretary who becomes a boss is "generally in for a fall." Trade union government must be government by the people, and every sensible trade unionist knows it. A good trade union secretary, in this view of the case, is a trouble-smoother, not a trouble-maker. Thousands of adjustments are made by wise secretaries whose names never get into the paper. "Keeping the peace is not news."

When deadlock comes in an attempt at adjustment, there is usually a clause in the collective agreement which requires that the difference of opinion is to be examined in a prescribed manner. These agreements are indeed "the Scriptures of Industrial Relations," the "Book of the Law and the Prophets." Upon what do these agreements rest? There is no law behind them other than "the inner compulsion that makes any reasonable man want to abide by any agreement to which he has set his hand."

The strike, remarks Professor Hilton, is like its rarer complement, the lockout, "a game at which both sides generally lose and often enough know they will lose." No responsible leader on either side wants a strike, but if it comes to a strike, the union that is only a fighting force and nothing more is not likely to win. Bluff, bluster, noise, inflammatory talk have but little real effect. The union must have cohesion and loyalty and that abiding allegiance which goes with years of mutual helpfulness. It must understand that industry is essentially a matter of "working together, not of striving against." It is all right to say: "We won't work on such terms," but to say: "We'll injure you until you agree to our terms" does not make as good sense. What worries English trade union leaders most, it appears, is the presence of anti-trade union elements in the membership. The Communists are few, but they are fervent and zealous. Apparently they want, first, to wreck the present trade unions, next to wreck the employer, and then out of the final wreckage build their own world. Naturally the trade unions dislike this programme, and they let the Communists know that they dislike it. One can often hear in English labor circles "the sizzle of some trade union pouring cold water on its red-hot tail."

PROCRASTINATING METHODS

Nothing of any importance in the way of legislation has, so far, been brought down during the present session of the Legislature, which has now been in progress for four weeks. It appears that, as is usual, whatever is planned by the Government will be presented for consideration at the eleventh hour, when the minimum of time will be given for its consideration, as it is planned to conclude the session within a fortnight. The legislation anticipated is that to prevent security frauds, or in other words to exercise stronger supervision over the stock-broking industry, to enforce more drastic regulations governing the issue of driving licences for motoring, and perhaps legislation arising out of the recommendations of the Macdonald Commission relative to the prices of coal and oil. All these are contentious matters. In regard to the first two the Government has had ample time for the preparation of legislation, especially following the report of the Hedy Amalgamated Inquiry last Spring. It has known for a long time that something should be done to reduce the toll of motoring accidents. It has specific recommendations from the Macdonald Commission, in the matter of coal and oil, though it may be doubtful if it can do anything in regard to them that would be intra vires of provincial powers of legislation.

Every session of the Provincial Legislature in these latter years is an example of contentious legislation being postponed until the dying hours, which is an indication either of dilatoriness on the part of the Government, or else a desire to railroad through its measures with the minimum of opposition. The present Government has never met the Legislature with its full programme of new Bills prepared. Possibly this is due to the so frequent absences of Ministers from their duties and their inability to concentrate in advance on the primary purposes for which they are chosen for administrative duty. Some of them are preoccupied at present in the Federal by-election campaign in this constituency, and so are unable to give the attention necessary to provincial problems. This by-election has halted progress in the session of the British Columbia Legislature and added to its cost. Too often partisanship is allowed to override business-like methods in administration. All Government legislation desired at this time should now be before the present session of the Provincial Legislature, so as to give the Members full time for its consideration and study. The whole history of the past has been one of half-baked legislation, with its corollary of amending Bills which are probably more numerous in British Columbia than anywhere else in the world.

Mr. Lloyd George must be losing his appeal to the emotions. In his latest pungent speech on British foreign policy only 212 members were in their seats in the House of Commons. There was a time when he could have filled the House.

Be Advised:

The Liberal candidate is appealing to the electors as a business man, and it is suggested on his behalf that he can obtain unusual benefits for Victoria. It is therefore a matter of justifiable comment to examine his attitude towards public business as contained in official records. In 1932 Mr. Mayhew was a member of the Kidd Committee, and signed the report made by that committee.

As examples of his attitude towards public affairs, below are quoted excerpts from that report:

Free Education Limited—Page 34

"We therefore recommend that free education be provided up to the completion of the pupil's fourteenth year, that is, up to the fourteenth anniversary of his birth. Should a pupil wish to attend high school after the completion of his fourteenth year, he should only be permitted to do so on paying fees sufficient to cover 50 per cent of the entire cost of his education, including interest and sinking fund charges on capital raised for the school building. If he desires to continue attendance at high school after the completion of his sixteenth year, he should only be permitted to do so on paying fees sufficient to cover 100 per cent of such entire cost."

Teachers' Salaries—Page 36

"We have no hesitation in recommending that a new schedule be prepared providing for reduction in the aggregate of salaries by 25 per cent. This reduction of 25 per cent should be in addition to such economies as may accrue from the reduced number of teachers, which would result from the adoption of all the recommendations made by us in connection with education."

Fisheries—Page 42

"We therefore recommend that the Provincial Department of Fisheries be closed."

"Re Mines Development Act which provides for making of trails, roads, bridges to facilitate opening and development of mining properties—

"We are of the opinion that all expenditures under this act must cease until the budget is balanced, and that then the grant should be limited to $25,000 with a limitation of $1,000 expenditure to aid anyone mining property or camp."

NOTE: Average expenditure was about $100,000.

Roads—Page 46

"Recommends: That all construction work on new highways and buildings be discontinued at once, and that all expenditures on roads be confined for the present to such maintenance and betterments as are essential. That the Dominion Government be asked without delay to discontinue the construction of this section of the Big Bend Road."

Dismissal of Employees—Page 51

"The suggestion made in the report involving the dismissal of a large number of Government employees will no doubt bring forth the criticism that such a policy will add to the already large numbers of unemployed. This is, of course, obviously true. In our opinion, it is far better that persons should be frankly recognized as unemployed than attempt, at a much greater cost, to retain them on the payroll."

Social Security Is Goal of Democracy, Avers Prof. Gordon

C.C.F. Candidate Receives Ovation at Rally in City Temple—M. J. Coldwell, M.P., and Dr. Lyle Telford, M.P.P., Criticize G. G. McGeer

A CROWD of 1,100 persons that filled the City Temple greeted Professor J. King Gordon, C.C.F. candidate, with an ovation as he entered the large auditorium to address them last evening.

"The goal of democracy can be stated in one phrase—it is the goal of social security," Professor Gordon told his listeners. "Without it, freedom is meaningless."

"Social security means a decent livelihood, for without an adequate income there is no freedom," he continued. He stressed the fact that at this time of prosperity, wages are low and prices dear. "A secure income," he maintained, "should be guaranteed the workers."

He deplored the fact that the legislators of Canada, at the present time, under the B.N.A. Act as a fence to hide behind.

"Do you think Sir John A. Macdonald, who was once elected from this constituency, would be speaking on the same platform as those who urge narrow insularity, if he were alive today?" he asked. "The small group that is working for you, day in, day out and always in the House of Commons, will urge the B.N.A. Act be amended to provide such an adequate wage."

He deplored the fact that the legislators of Canada, at the present time, under the B.N.A. Act as a fence to hide behind.

"Thirdly," he continued, "the meaning of social security is health insurance. Doctors and nurses tell me that, in many cases, life could have been saved, but the individual neglects to seek medical care because he is too poor to afford it, and is too proud to ask for it."

Professor Gordon declared that lastly, social security meant decent homes for the people of the Dominion, and the amelioration of slum conditions which had been widespread throughout Canada for years.

He warned that democracy would not reach the goal of social security under the present system.

In conclusion he declared that believers in democracy, all over Canada, had their eyes on Victoria. "They were thrilled at the mounting wave of progressive thought in this city at the time of the last by-election. They look forward to victory on this occasion. That victory will be a step forward that will resound all across Canada," he asserted.

Professor Gordon was supported by M. J. Coldwell, M.P., for Roseville-Biggar, Sask., and Dr. Lyle Telford, M.P.P., for Vancouver East. Mr. Coldwell drew attention to the fact that R. W. Mayhew, the Liberal candidate, had emphasized the party he represented was responsible for initiating measures towards the establishment of unemployment insurance. This, the speaker suggested, was incorrect. The group in the House of Commons, led by J. S. Woodsworth, had made a move for social security measures in 1921, and had been denounced by both Liberals and Conservatives for so doing.

OLD-AGE PENSIONS In 1925, Mr. Coldwell pointed out, Mr. Mackenzie King had agreed to the support of old-age pensions, and the consideration of unemployment insurance, if Mr. Woodsworth would support him in his endeavour to form a government.

"But," declared Mr. Coldwell, "in the ensuing election, when Mr. King's party was returned, old-age pensions were shelved, and nothing was done about unemployment insurance."

He termed the present old-age pensions "pre-death loans," for which the Government insisted on liens on property held by pensioners.

DR. TELFORD HEARD In speaking of the Government's failure to nationalize the Bank of Canada, he drew attention to the attack made by G. G. McGeer, K.C., M.P., on the Government on June 2, 1936, when Mr. McGeer declared: "The Liberal Government is placing its feet on the pathway of broken promises."

"Rumors have it that Mr. McGeer was told if he wished to embarrass the Government he could do it from the other side of the House, and Mr. McGeer has been effectively shut up," Mr. Coldwell asserted.

Dr. Telford also turned his guns on Mr. McGeer. He declared the Vancouver member had "ridiculed poor Bruce McKelvie."

"If we checked up on all the things McKelvie has changed his mind on, we'd have a vaudeville show lasting two hours," commented the doctor. He urged the people of Victoria to return Professor Gordon, and declared the psychological effect such a result would have on the people of Canada would be tremendous.

Mrs. R. P. Steeves, M.P.P., presided.

Winnipeg Broker Given Four Years

WINNIPEG, Nov. 22 (C.P.)—T. Cuthbert Anderson, former president of the bankrupt brokerage firm of Anderson, Greene & Company, today was sentenced, by Mr. Justice A. K. Dyson of Court of King's Bench, to four years in penitentiary.

He was found guilty of seven charges of theft in connection with handling of customers' accounts.

PREFERENCES ARE UPHELD

Conservative Speakers Discuss Value of Empire Pacts To British Columbia

Declaring Imperial preferences had done more for British Columbia and the Dominion as a whole than any other agency, L. H. Eyles, M.P.P. for Chilliwack, at a meeting in support of Bruce A. McKelvie in South Park School last night, challenged the right of the United States to take preference from Canada.

"Canada must not relinquish those agreements to the country to the south that lives within itself. If we lose those preferences, the growers in the Okanagan Valley will lose an industry valued at $50,000,000. The business of British Columbia knows the seriousness of the situation. The Mother Country has been good to us and we have been good to her and we must consider the British Commonwealth of Nations as an Empire family, members of which want to trade one with the other," said Mr. Eyles.

DEFENCE POLICY Dealing with the defence policy, the Chilliwack member said defence never should have been made an issue in the present campaign.

"When our men and boys went over to France, they went for Canada and not for any political party. If it's defence the Liberal Government wants to talk about, I charge here now that the proposed defence force for this coast is a joke. One plane could come over here and wipe out the lot. What we need is three or four destroyers on this coast, and not on the Atlantic," he stated.

Robert D. Harvey, president of the Victoria Conservative Association, said in his opinion the defence programme for the Pacific Coast was "meagre and inadequate for the purpose."

Mr. Harvey declared the present policy was not a new programme, but the same programme proposed by the Bennett Government in 1932, "at a time," said Mr. Harvey, "when international conditions were nothing like they are today."

The present Minister of National Defence said in the House of Commons last February, May I tell my honorable friend that no new defence policy is embodied in these estimates. The whole tenure of this campaign has been to make the people believe the Liberals had a new policy."

OLD AGE PENSIONS Bruce A. McKelvie, the Conservative candidate, opened a new subject in the campaign and made an appeal for "a more just treatment by the Government of aged persons in the Dominion."

Persons in the declining years of their lives, he said, were entitled to an assured income, "not as a gift of charity, but as an obligation to those men and women who have spent their lives in the Dominion and have contributed to its revenues. You have a sales tax already. Everyone pays a sales tax and a part of it could very well be earmarked for an old age pension, and everyone throughout their lives would be contributing to it," he asserted.

Mr. McKelvie touched on the Government's proposal to introduce a scheme of unemployment insurance in Canada. He claimed unemployment insurance was one of the four social reform measures placed on the statute books by the Bennett administration and "thrown into the courts by the present Prime Minister."

He asked why the Government had left it until now before conferring with the provinces for co-operation in putting the measure into operation.

IMPERIAL PREFERENCE The major part of Mr. McKelvie's address was taken up with Imperial preferences and the effect of removal of preferences would have on the basic industries of British Columbia. He quoted figures of production in British Columbia for years preceding operation of the Ottawa agreements and the value of production in 1933, 1934 and 1935.

During the Bennett administration, increase in basic industry production, he asserted, was greater than $43,000,000 annually.

Mr. McKelvie touched on the Kidd Report, a report of a special committee set up in the Tolmie regime of which R. W. Mayhew, he said, was a member.

"Mr. Mayhew, as a businessman, states in page 32 of the report, referring to the liquor warehouse, and he signed the report of the committee: 'We see no justification for the warehouse in Victoria. It is a complete duplication of the staff and stock in the Vancouver warehouse and recommend that it be closed... We are of the opinion that the scale of pay is excessive in view of the fact that no particular training is required. We recommend that all salaries and wages be reduced by 20 per cent.' That's what Mr. Mayhew recommended—and it's not so very long ago," Mr. McKelvie concluded.

A YOUNG SPEAKER Bruce McKelvie, a member of the Greater Victoria Young Conservative Association, spoke on behalf of youth, and said: "Youth demands progress. We are young Canadians and we believe in Canada, and we are proud of the part she has played in the affairs of the Empire, and we cry shame on those who would weaken the ties that bind together the units of our Empire. We believe in fair play and we do not approve of any party bludgeoning the voters to vote for a Liberal candidate or go without the things that are undoubtedly accruing to Victoria. This city is certainly not getting anything from the Liberal Government." He also referred to the Kidd Report and the recommendation to charge students for their tuition.

The meeting was well attended and Hubert Lethaby was the chairman.

CASE HINGES UPON INTENT

Magistrate Hall Takes Time To Consider Decision in Surrey and Keifer Case

James H. Surrey and Klieve Keifer, charged with assault upon Philip Burnett with intent to rob, now await the decision of Magistrate Henry C. Hall this morning as to their guilt. The taking of the evidence in the case was concluded yesterday in the city police court and, the addresses of counsel followed, with Carew Martin for the accused, and C. L. Harrison, city prosecutor, for the Crown.

James Surrey, resuming his evidence under cross-examination by Mr. Harrison, testified that he could not recall the arrest. He could not recall entering the house of Mr. Burnett and putting a jacket belonging to that house on him, which, it was alleged, he was wearing at the time of his arrest. He recollected a scuffle with the taxi-driver, but could not recall the cause of it.

Sgt. Thomas Hall, of the city police, testified to the condition of Keifer when at the police station. He had left him on the floor rather than put him in bed for fear he would fall out of bed if placed there.

"ON ROARING DRUNK"
Mr. Martin, in his argument, sought to have eliminated the charge of attempted robbery in connection with the case. To support the charge of attempted robbery, there would have to be proved the presence of intent on the part of the accused. It was admitted there was a scuffle with the taxi-driver, but there was no evidence that accused knew what he was doing. Keifer was in a condition, he argued, of drunken stupor.

"They were on a roaring drunk," said Mr. Martin, "but were incapable of forming an intent."

Mr. Harrison stated the question to be decided was whether the men knew what they were doing, or were in a state of being incapable of forming an opinion as to carrying out any plan. He alluded to the sign made which, he declared, could only be interpreted as one of meaning to knock the taxi-driver out.

In order to go into the evidence more fully, the magistrate adjourned the case until this morning, for judgment.

CHINESE CONSENT IS NEEDED FOR CONTROL

British Ambassador to China, who now is recuperating from serious injuries.

"After careful consideration, His Majesty's Government thought it more consonant with the importance of the occasion to make the compensation themselves," he said. In September the Foreign Office announced Parliament would be asked to vote $5,000 ($25,000) to the ambassador.

DEFENCE CRUMBLES
SHANGHAI, Nov. 22.—The Japanese army tonight reported another of the Chinese defence systems shattering. Japanese troops, heavily attacked by Japanese airplanes, were said to be in flight from Wushu, keypoint of the north-south line between the Yangtze River and Lake Tai, approximately half way between Shanghai and the capital of China.

Although Wushu is ninety-five air-line miles southeast of Nanking, Japanese officers expressed belief their forces could reach the capital's gates this week, in spite of heavy rains and quagmire roads.

So rapid was the Japanese advance over the muddy flats north of Lake Tai that airplanes were used to carry rations and munitions to infantry columns that outran their transport.

A PERSONAL MESSAGE
Japanese officers said their air force made a spectacular flight over Nanking to drop a "personal message" for General Chiang Kai-Shek, head of the Chinese Government and army, in which Japan's army and navy jointly urged him to end hostilities and surrender himself.

Whether the message contained definite peace proposals was not disclosed.

The Japanese planes did no bombing at Nanking, but they shot down one of a number of Chinese planes that rose to meet them. Among the Chinese craft were several of a new type, which supported reports that fifty Russian warplanes had been flown recently to Langchow, in Northwestern China, for inclusion in the Chinese forces.

Returning from Nanking, the Japanese planes bombed Chinkiang, Yangtze River port, and were said to have sunk a Chinese gunboat farther down the river.

PREPARING TO CROSS
Dispatches from Peiping said Japanese forces invading Shantung Province were preparing to cross the Yellow River at several points to attack Tsinan, provincial capital.

A Japanese spokesman said records seized when Talyanfu, capital of Shensi Province, fell two weeks ago, showed women fought with the Communists in Shansi, where several roving bands of Chinese Amateurs were said to be carrying on a guerrilla campaign.

World Fellowship Tea Held by Y.W.C.A. Girls

Miss Enid Cole Gives Address During Service on Sunday Afternoon—One-Act Play and Tea Conclude Enjoyable Gathering

That "Peace begins with the individual" was among the many points of vital concern and of international interest emphasized by Miss Enid Cole in her talk on Sunday afternoon in the Y.W.C.A. recreation room. The afternoon was devoted to a World Fellowship service and tea arranged by the girls' department.

Miss Cole addressed her talk to the women and mothers of today and tomorrow. She said: "Peace is something clear and deep, buried in our hearts. We are caught in a system where everyone is wishing for peace and preparing for war. However imperfect the League of Nations may seem, it is the first endeavor towards unity. Co-operation brings out the best in men and women. We are one family, and the sooner we get to know that the better. If we want peace, we can have it, but it depends upon how much we want it. We can get it through co-operation and unity. Let us join together and look for the northwest passage to a happier and better world."

ONE-ACT PLAY
"Another Point of View," a short play in one scene, opened the afternoon programme. Nora Williams, Mary McDonald and Frances Wood took the part of three club girls and convincingly carried the play to its climax. A series of pictures representing Y.W.C.A. activities throughout the world was given in a short broadcast programme.

As part of the devotional period of the afternoon, Miss Catherine Denison contributed two sacred solos, accompanied by Miss Margaret Pringle at the piano. "Jesus Shall Reign Where Ever the Sun" and "All People That on Earth Do Dwell" were the hymns chosen to carry out the international theme of the afternoon.

Much interest centred round the tea table arrangements. An attractive live setting, with an international theme, was obtained through the table decorations. A national motive was used on each of the six club tea tables. A globe and dolls in national costume centred the table, around which the club tables were grouped.

THOSE IN CHARGE
Mrs. John Baxter, first vice-president of the board of directors, and Mrs. Richard Felton, convener of the girls' work committee, presided at the tea urns. Miss Enid Cole, president of the Y.W.C.A. Girls' Council, presided during the programme and acted as hostess for the tea hour. The girls entertained their mothers and friends as guests. Other guests included Mrs. John Baxter, Mrs. Richard Felton, Mrs. W. Hetherington, Mrs. P. A. Gibbs, Mrs. R. Wallace, Mrs. Walter Walker, Mrs. W. G. Graham, Miss Minnie Bevedge and Miss Evelyn Clark.

The assistance of the club leaders, Mrs. Kenneth Wright, Miss Muriel Johnson and Miss Blanche Alward was greatly appreciated by the girls.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Beare, 1733 Montclair Street, when their second daughter, Audrey Eileen, and "All People That on Earth Do Dwell" were the hymns chosen to carry out the international theme of the afternoon.

short train. Her waist-length veil of matching lace was arranged in a halo and she carried an arm bouquet of Opheila roses and pink carnations. She also wore a pearl necklace and earrings, the gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Doreen Beare, the bride's sister, and Miss Frances Crockford, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids, and wore frocks of peach point d'esprit over satin, in redingote style, with silver girdles and bows at the neck. They wore silver bandeaux in their hair, and carried Colonial bouquets of pink and white carnations centred with pink rose. The flower girl, June Miller, the bride's niece, was dressed in apple-green point d'esprit over satin, and carried a posy of pink and white carnations. Mr. Victor Zala supported the groom.

Supper was served after the ceremony at a table centred with the bride's cake. Mrs. Beare was dressed in black chiffon over flowered satin, and Mrs. Crockford in black crepe trimmed with gold. Their corsage bouquets were of Opheila roses. Mr. and Mrs. Crockford left on the midnight boat for Vancouver en route to Seattle. For travelling the bride wore a black flowered dress and black coat with grey wolf collar and black accessories. Among the presents received was a cheque from the employees of Ray's where the groom is employed.

ARE YOU ONLY A THREE-QUARTER WIFE?

THERE are certain things a woman has to put up with and be a good sport. Mrs. Mallek, because they are men, can never understand a three-quarter wife—a wife who is all love and kindness three weeks in a month and a half out the rest of the time. No matter how loudly your nerves scream—don't take it out on your husband. For three generations one woman has told another how to get "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It thus leaves the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three orders of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. A "preaching" middle age. Don't be a three-quarter wife, take LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and go "Smiling Through."

Invitation Musical Is Delightful

The brilliant young Australian violinist, Miss Selma Reyes, was presented under happy auspices at an invitation recital given Friday afternoon by Mrs. J. Hedden Gillespie at "Windyshaugh," Fairfield Road. About fifty guests, among whom Mrs. E. W. Hamber and Mrs. Rice were guests-of-honor, were present, and showed enthusiastic appreciation of the artistic performance. Mrs. Gillespie, who was at the piano throughout the recital, shared in the musical honors of the occasion.

Known for her fine virtuosity and dynamic gifts, Miss Reyes, who is daily winning wider recognition here after more than a year's residence in the city in demonstrated many facets of her rich technique in the well-chosen programme. This included the first movement of Brahms' Third Sonata in D Minor for violin and piano; the Moszkowski "Guitar" (arranged by Massart), the Sarasate "Zigeuner-Weisen," the Tchaikowsky "Melodie" (arranged by Karl Fleisch), and the two encorres, "Indian Lament" (Dvorak-Kreisler), and "Liebesleid" (Frits Kreisler). These were played with confidence, authority, and mature interpretative powers that evoked many compliments from the discriminating audience.

The setting was charming, the reception-rooms being beautiful with masses of chrysanthemums, and the tea table, at which Mrs. E. P. Gillespie and Mrs. James Anderson presided, had an attractive Chinese motif in its Chinese embroideries and old lacquer box filled with bronze chrysanthemums.

ENGAGEMENTS

CROWCROFT-McGILL
The engagement is announced of Miss Mabel McGill, daughter of Mr. Peter McGill and the late Mrs. A. A. Crowcroft, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Crowcroft, Rotherham, Yorkshire, England. The wedding will take place shortly.

TO WEAR GOWNS IN POLICE COURT

The announcement is made by Hon. Gordon S. Wimer, Attorney-General, that, following the practice in the police courts of Ontario and various others of the older provinces, the police magistrates of Victoria and Vancouver will be authorized to don gowns when sitting in the performance of their duties.

The practice is expected to come into effect on December 1. In the past, the wearing of ordinary suits, without gowns, has been the custom. The alteration in the fashion is the result of a visit made to the eastern provinces by Magistrate H. S. Wood, Vancouver, where he witnessed the wearing of the gowns in the principal police courts of Ontario. He had been insisting upon the carrying out of the practice here since his return with the result that the support of Police Magistrate H. C. Hall was sought in the move. The latter is agreeable to the change and on the conveying of the opinions of the two magistrates to the Attorney-General, he has authorized the alteration. Counsel will not be required to appear gowned.

In the Victoria police magistrate's court, the habit continues of addressing the occupant of the bench as "Your Honor" instead of "Your Worship" as in the other police courts. The practice was one that developed in the time of Police Magistrate George Jay's occupancy of the bench.

SEES ORIENT AS CHANGING

Menace and Markets Across Pacific, B.C. Legislature Is Told

The Orient both as a market and a menace was sketched out for the British Columbia Legislature yesterday by George M. Murray (Liberal, Lillooet), as budget debate proceeded. Mr. Murray pointed with alarm to growing industrial expansion in Japan under a feudal hierarchy, with aggression in China and its threat to Pacific relations, and also argued that British Columbia could find open markets abroad in the Far East, including British Malaya and Dutch settlements nearby. Addressing the B.C. Legislature (Conservative, Victoria) followed, stressing need for municipal aid now.

Citing the wage scale in Japan to include common labor, twenty cents per sixteen-hour day; blacksmiths, sixty cents; patternmakers, seventy cents; plasterers, seventy cents; stonemasons, fifty-two cents; foresters, $10 to $15 per month, and others in like proportion, Mr. Murray said that if Japan succeeded in subjugating China, she would have vast raw materials and a population of 400,000,000 persons to draw from in using them. This, he declared, would be a menace to industry on the Pacific.

MALAYA OPENINGS
Dealing with the Orient as a market, Mr. Murray declared British Columbia could sell lumber, fruit, vegetables, pulp, paper, newsprint and many other commodities in waiting markets at Singapore, Malaya, Borneo, Dutch settlements around Java, if a united bid were made together with Australia and New Zealand, for this trade.

On domestic matters, he urged completion of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, and development of the province by borrowings, if need be, to meet opportunities of the present and future. Relief, municipal finance, and P.G.E. debts, at $50,000,000, were the three big problems of British Columbia, and only spirited action to step ahead would meet them, Mr. Murray concluded.

DR. J. D. HUNTER

Dr. Hunter called on the Government to call for the election pledges of 1933 by restoring Provincial grants to the municipalities. He admitted the grants were struck off by the previous ministry, but argued that British Columbia revenues had recovered by $9,000,000 since that time. He concurred with the Member for Fort George (H. G. Perry) that the Province should eventually take over the cost of education and hospitalization from the municipalities, but said restoration of grants should be made now. Reverting to the purchase of Anglican Church property here by the Province, Dr. Hunter said he had stated as much in his election campaign. The facts were that the City of Victoria lost $1,300 in annual taxes by Crown acquisition of the site, he persisted. Property could no longer carry the burdens now placed on it by withdrawal of Provincial grants and enlargement of social service costs, and this had been brought clearly to the attention of the Government, by the Union of Municipalities in successive briefs.

GASOLINE TAX
Rather than spending gasoline revenues on fresh roads, the Province should now hand a portion of these collections to the municipalities, from whence the receipts were drawn in the first place, Dr. Hunter continued.

Touching briefly on tourist trade, he said Vancouver Island had had a favorable tourist trade balance this year, due to aggressive action in its publicity bureaus. Visiting cars through Victoria and Sidney customs ports had been three-to-one, compared with outgoing vehicles this year, Dr. Hunter concluded.

P.G.E. BUSINESS

Motor trucks were the greatest problem faced by the P.G.E. in the Eastern Railway, C.H. Tupper (Lab., Similkameen), told the Legislature last night. Trucks take the best of the traffic and do not live up to the regulations of the Traffic Board, he said. Passenger revenue on the P.G.E. in 1936 amounted to $76,219, freight hauled produced a revenue of $460,842, and dining and sleeping car services brought in $82,025 for a grand total of $619,086, said Mr. Tupper. Against this amount was an operating cost of $508,984, leaving an operating profit of $110,102. The equipment and roadbed were being kept up to standard, and only thirteen small bridges need renewing, the member said. These renewals could be handled from current revenue.

The policy of the management did not at the present time call for further development, he concluded.

HOSPITALIZATION

Captain Cecil R. Bull (Lab., South Okanagan) told of the dollar a month per family plan of hospitalization in Kelowna, which, voluntarily operated, was working to success. He urged the Province to go ahead with hospitalization, as a precedent to health insurance.

Captain Bull appealed for work on the Osoyoos Highway, praised Federal defence plans in this Coast, and appealed for greater British Columbia attention to selected immigration plans now being worked out in the United Kingdom.

Dr. F. P. Patterson adjourned debate for R. L. Macdonald, K.C., as the house rose at 10:55 p.m. until 2:30 p.m. today.

WAS PIONEER OF DISTRICT

Mrs. Helen Kate Andrew Passes Away in Vancouver Aged Eighty-Three

Member of a pioneer family who established themselves at the old Garbally Farm in the 'sixties, Mrs. Helen Kate Andrew, last surviving child of Richard and Anne Woods, passed away yesterday morning in Vancouver at the age of eighty-three years.

Mrs. Andrew's parents left Parsonstown, Ireland, in 1865, and required two months for the family to make the journey to Victoria. They early established themselves at the Garbally Farm on Victoria Arm, and there they became well-known and highly respected. She herself grew up with the community, and right to the last continued to show the neighborly spirit of kindness that belonged to that generation. It is only within comparatively recent years that she left to live with her eldest daughter, Mrs. George T. Storey, in Vancouver, although she had traveled much about the province in the early days. She was one of the first white women to visit the Stikine district north of Prince Rupert, going in with her brother-in-law and sister, Rev. and Mrs. R. Tomlinson, when the former was missionary to the Stikine Indians. In addition to this sister she had two others, the Misses Lily and Emily Woods, and a brother, Richard Edward Woods, of Grand Prairie, B.C., and Salmon Arm, all of whom predeceased her.

In 1882 she married John Andrew, who died in 1891. For many years he was connected with the Hudson's Bay Company. She is survived by one son, Richard, living in New Westminster; and three daughters, Mrs. M. Kirkpatrick-Crockett, Victoria; Mrs. G. T. Storey and Mrs. G. Wilson, Vancouver; and eight grandchildren. The funeral services will be held from St. Matthias' Church, Poul Bay, tomorrow afternoon at 2:30, interment to be in the family plot at Ross Bay Cemetery. Flowers sent to Sands Mortuary Chapel will be delivered at the church.

WIFE WHO WAS CROSS AND TOUCHY

Put Herself Right With Kruschen

"I am 39 years of age," a woman writes, "yet some days I have been feeling and looking 100 years old. I would get fits of exhaustion for no good reason at all. I was not fit to live with because I would be so cross and touchy. I did not seem to have any ambition to do my housework, and I was tired all the time."

"Two years ago I had sciatica all down my left side from the hip. My doctor says all this is caused through my nerves. I took Kruschen and found it helped me very much. Since I started taking it I am a different person. My work seems a lot easier and I have a lot more energy."—(Mrs.) G.M.

The "little daily dose" of Kruschen puts an end to tiredness and depression, because it restores the eliminating organs to proper activity by providing them with the daily reminder and daily aid that they require. Cleansed and invigorated blood is sent circulating all over the system, carrying new vitality to every nerve and new vigor to every limb. (Adv.)

kenzie River delta at Aklavik, N.W.T. The Royal Canadian Corps of Signals at Edmonton reported the Soviet-owned airplane had reached Aklavik, completing a 1,040-mile flight from Fort Resolution, N.W.T., and setting the stage for preparations for further flights over the Arctic in search of the lost Russian flyers.

LIGHT SNOW FALLING

The giant silver monoplane left Fort Resolution, about 600 miles north of Edmonton, at 8 a.m. (P.S.T.) today and experienced poor flying conditions until past Port Simpson. Light snow was falling south of that post, the visibility was only fair and the ceiling was moderate. But from Simpson north conditions were favorable.

Time of arrival at Aklavik was not contained in the brief message received at Edmonton.

Before resuming search flights over the Arctic toward the north during the moonlight period of mid-December, the party will concentrate on completing arrangements for the flight.

Sir Hubert said locating a suitable spot on the mainland Arctic coast or on Banks' Island for the proposed radio station, establishing emergency bases along the coast and amassing necessary data will keep the party busy until the approach of the full moon allows a flight.

SCOUT ARCTIC W. R. Wilson, Toronto, radio engineer, and Al Cheesman, Port Arthur, reserve pilot, will be stationed at the wireless station while Sir Hubert, Hollick-Kenyon, and Alan Dyne, Winnipeg, air engineer, will scout the Arctic for Sigismund Levaneffsky and his five companions since August 13 on a trans-polar flight from Moscow to the United States.

The party's supply ship, a commercial plane piloted by Rudy Heus, Edmonton, was believed to be down at Port Simpson or Port Norman tonight. The machine, carrying Cheesman and additional equipment for the search party, left for Resolution or Port Simpson at 8:10 a.m. (P.S.T.), but was forced to return after running into snow and fog near Hay River. It took off again at 12:15 p.m. (P.S.T.).

TWO-WAY RADIO WILL KEEP PILOTS POSTED ON BAR CONDITIONS

ASTORIA, Ore., Nov. 22 (P.)—Ship movements and weather conditions at the Columbia River bar will be reported by two-way radio between the bar pilots' schooner Columbia and the river pilots' tug Arrow No. 2, Captain Clarence E. Ash said today.

Previously, the turbulent bar has been watched by the Columbia River lightship, several miles outside, and coastguardsmen on promontories near the river mouth.

Fishing Concerns of Alaska Town Suffer Estimated Loss of $250,000

PETERSBURG, Alaska, Nov. 22 (P.)—Fire of undetermined origin broke out on the public wharf early today and destroyed the fish house and Trading Union wharf and warehouse and the Kayler-Oines shrimp and crab cannery. Owners estimated the loss at $250,000, partly covered by insurance.

Included in the loss were $30,000 worth of halibut fishing gear stored by halibut fleet members, the Trading Union's stock of merchandise, the Kayler-Oines merchandise and equipment, fish boxes and 50,000 pounds of black cod from the schooner Mitkof, salted yesterday in the fish house.

She will sail soon for Vancouver by way of the Panama Canal, under Captain J. C. White.

Saw Three Days Of Fighting in North of China

A passenger on board the Ss. Tathylus when she arrived here Saturday from China was Augustine Constantian, an American businessman, who has spent the last three years in China.

Mr. Constantian witnessed three days of intense fighting at Tientsin, North China, where he stated that the Japanese planes bombed the city, destroying the police station, schools and many other buildings. Mr. Constantian said the Chinese were outnumbered by the Japanese, but that they fought to the last man. The casualties were heavy. He saw the fighting from a house roof.

Mr. Constantian left Sunday morning for Seattle, where he will spend the next few days. From there he will return to his home in San Francisco.

At a large banquet Lady Astor once remarked that men were valier than women and, meeting with stormy opposition, declared herself ready to substantiate her statement. Steering the conversation to men's fashions, she suddenly said in a loud voice:

"It's a pity that the most intelligent and learned men attach least importance to the way they dress. Why, right at this time, the most cultivated man is wearing the most clumsily knotted tie!"

As if on a given signal, every man in the room immediately put his hand to his tie to straighten it.

What Today Means

"SAGITTARIUS"

If November 23 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10 a.m. until noon; from 2 to 4 p.m., and from 8 to 10 p.m.

The danger periods are from 8 to 10 a.m.; from 6 to 8 p.m., and from 10 p.m. until midnight.

Temperamental outbursts and dramatic poses will be the contributing causes to many unpleasant scenes this day. If you wish to use good judgment do not indulge in either. It will be dangerous to pretext anything you are not willing to practise this day, for circumstances are liable to arise that might require you to put into practice your own precepts. Do not be too quick in accepting circumstantial evidence, for many a false conclusion is apt to be formed in this manner. Be careful that too much optimism does not lead to your counting your chickens before they are hatched and spending money in the anticipation of receiving some. In social activities conflicting hours are apt to bring about a great deal of confusion, so be cautious in arranging your time.

Married and engaged couples, as well as those around whom the matrimonial bee is buzzing, must be careful that some form of nagging does not spoil this day.

If a woman and November 23 is your birthday, you will find that you are in the position to exercise

a power for much good in the lives of many people. Unselfishness on your part will be well rewarded.

Wealth may dominate your future, enabling you to do many things you have always had your heart set upon doing. Be cautious in forming any partnership because a close business associate is as liable to have as many virtues and faults as has a husband and you might have to spend more hours in business than you have to if domestically engaged. As an educator—missionary, author, actress, musician or sales lady you ought to do well financially. If you let love dominate your matrimonial acts and thoughts, your married life will be a very happy one.

must learn the art of playing as well as concentrating on work it has to do. Children born on this date, unless trained when quite young, frequently allow their attention to wander. They have good minds susceptible to worthwhile development.

Boston Bruins Win Sixth Game From the Hawks

Art Ross' Great Band of Hockey Players Continue Winning Streak at Expense of Chicago by 2-1 Score—Rookie Members Star in Victory—Leafs Blank Detroit Wings, 5-0

(By the Canadian Press)

This season's Bruins seem destined to be one of the great Boston teams. Art Ross has set lofty standards with previous machines, but none could have flown higher than Bruins have this year in winning their first six starts.

Whenever Boston goals are discussed, the first to come up is the mighty unit which established an all-time scoring mark with 179 goals in 1929-30. That team won thirty-eight of the forty-four games in its schedule, then failed against Montreal Canadiens in Stanley Cup finals. Coney Weiland set a record of forty-three goals and thirty assists that year, and Dutch Gahner made thirty-one assists.

Never quite the equal of that club, others Ross has welded have won six American division titles and finished second three times in eleven years. Remarkably, the only time Bruins have won the Stanley Cup was in 1929-30.

Of the history-making cast of 1929-30, only Goalie Tiny Thompson, Eddie Shore, Dit Clapper and Weiland still are in the line-up. But into the faces of those who have drifted away have come swift, sure-shooting forwards and dynamic-dealing defencemen. Best of all, there has come a forward line from Kitchener, Ont., that should sparkle for years.

DEFEAT BLACK HAWKS

It was this new "baby line" of Milt Schmidt, Porky Dumart and Bobby Bauer that played a major part in the fifth and sixth Boston triumphs during the week-end. They ripped in a goal to put Bruins ahead of the Maple Leafs at Toronto Saturday, and Boston stayed there to win, 3-2. Sunday night the youngsters scored twice and the Black Hawks were beaten, 2-1, at Chicago.

In each case a capacity crowd—15,000 and 15,500—was the home side rally only to be beaten back by the stout Bruin defence. The forwards raged in for early goals and backchecked tenaciously the rest of the way.

Ray Gettiffe evened the score in the first period at Toronto after Harvey Jackson had put Leafs ahead in the fourteenth minute, on passes from the other members of his ace line, Gordon Drillon and Sylvanus Apps. Then the baby line played its hand, with Schmidt's goal and Gettiffe, Nick Metz pushed in the final Leaf counter in the third period.

The more notable showing of the Bruin fledglings produced both goals against Chicago in the second period. Schmidt barged in the first on a double pass from his mates, and Dumart gathered in Schmidt's relay to race around the Bruin defence for the second. Glen Brydson, assisted by Earl Seibert and Johnny Gottselig, averted a shutout in the third.

The defeat Saturday halted Leafs' string of six games without a loss, but they tore into Detroit, Sunday night, and handed the world champion Red Wings a 5-0 beating, the biggest margin of the entire week-end. With thirty-one goals, Toronto has scored more than the rest of its division put together, and is five points up on the second-place New York Americans and Montreal Canadiens. Boston's margin in the American section is also five.

Leafs swamped the Wings without the aid of bombing Charlie Conacher, still out with a bruised shoulder, while Detroit played without the injured Eddie Goodfellow. Bill Thoms was credited with two goals, and Apps, Drillon and Nick Metz got the others as hit-and-run goals. (Turk) Broda recorded his first shutout.

Detroit has lost four times in six starts for a record the name as that of Montreal Maroons, who lost their fourth of five games Saturday to New York Rangers, 3-0, but went to New York and tied the Ranger squad 3-3 in overtime.

Dave Kerr's shutout of Maroons, his third of the young season, came in the face of constant sniping. Likewise, Montreal was blanked for the third time as the forwards found Kerr catching their high shots and smothering the others effectively.

Cecil Dillon, long an unsung star, scored the first goal and assisted Valt Colville in the third. Clint Smith got the other halfway through the second period, four minutes after Dillon's. There wasn't enough punch to Maroons' attacks during three New York penalties in the last eighth.

OVERTIME BATTLE

Montreal couldn't battle a 2-0 lead in the Sunday game. Baldy Northcott and Gus Markie fashioned the margin in the second period, but Dillon narrowed it by one before Dave Trotter, of Maroons, and Phil Watson, of Rangers, interrupted the scoring with a first fight. They drew major penalties, and Joe Cooper, of

D. RITCHIE IS GOLF WINNER AT UPLANDS

Finishes With Net Score of 67 to Top Field—Bob Morrison Shoots 72

Making the best of his 24 handicap, Doug Ritchie posted a card of 91-24-67 to win the Graphic Arts golf tournament Sunday at the Uplands course from a large field of shotmakers. He finished one stroke ahead of Bob Morrison, who played sparkling golf considering the heavy going and came in with a score of 72, which was reduced to a net 69, as he was playing to a three handicap. Jack Bacon was third with a card of 83-11-72, and Bert Challenor was tied for the next three places with M. Wright and Rom Knott, with net scores of 73.

Charlie Benfield, King's Printer, presided at the banquet in the evening. After welcoming the visitors from Vancouver, Mr. Benfield presented the large list of prizes to the various winners. JOSEPH CASTOR IS IN THE OIL BUSINESS
San Francisco

Castor Oil for Desert—One of the strangest little girls of whom I have ever heard, is little Constance Junch, of Brooklyn, who actually likes castor oil better than any candy or dessert of which children are so fond. Four years ago her mother asked which she liked best, ice cream or castor oil, and the little tot rubbed her stomach and said, "Give me the castor oil." She likes it plain—no mixtures—and can have it at any time since she suffers no ill effects from indulging in her chosen dessert. She's a remarkably healthy youngster—her peculiar taste undoubtedly being a contributing factor.

Undying Quartette—On April 10, 1937, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ransom, Mrs. Casson Erickson and Almy Bohman, all over seventy years of age, sang two songs—"The Fortune Teller" and "The Auctioneer"—at a gathering in their home town, Monroe, Utah. The quartette sang the same songs they had sung together in the same meeting house of the same city exactly fifty years before. The quartette has been singing together for more than half a century under the direction of Mr. Ransom, choir director for fifty-eight years.

The Cat's Salary—Officials in the laboratory of the Bayonne, N.J., Standard Oil refineries appreciated the hard work of their pet cat, Minnie, a relentless mouser, so much that they put her on the company books for a regular salary. It's paid to her every day in generous portions of salmon and milk.

YOUNG GOAL GETTER TWO POINTS AHEAD OF HARVEY JACKSON

Six Goals and a Like Number of Assists Place Rookie Member of Toronto in Front of Pack—Conacher and Horner Tied for Third—Romnes Leads in American Section goals and six assists—put him at the top of the league. He's tied with another Leaf, Harvey Jackson, in goals and just one behind still another Toronto player, Defenceman Red Horner, in assists.

The Busher is second to Drillon in total points, too, with six goals and four assists. Right behind him is one more Leaf, Charlie Conacher, who has five goals and three assists. Doc Romnes, of Chicago, has four and four for a third-place tie with Connie.

Horner used to a big gun in the penalty figures, but he's just also ran this year to Baldy Northcott, of Montreal Maroons. Northcott has served sentences totaling thirty-five minutes, ten up on Babe Seibert, of Montreal Canadiens.

In team points, Boston Bruins lead the loop with twelve points and stand at the top of the American section. Leafs are at the head of the Canadian class with nine, their only defeat a Saturday night trimming at the hands of the Bruins, now the only undefeated team.

WHEAT FUTURES FAIL TO RECOVER

WINNIPEG, Nov. 22 (AP).—Stock market rallies near the close Tuesday, with wheat futures on the buying side to lift wheat futures on Winnipeg Grain Exchange from 3-cent bottom levels to close 1-5-8 to 1-2 cent lower.

Winnipeg traders followed closely the action at Chicago, where price recoveries also were made. At the close November wheat was $1.15 7/8; December, $1.12 3/4 to $1.12 7/8; May, $1.11 to $1.11 1/8, and July, $1.07 1/4.

Visible stocks of wheat in the United States decreased 4,352,000 bushels last week, but despite the large decrease Chicago failed to recover all of its 2-cent losses.

Liverpool finished 5-8 to 1-8 higher on late buying attributed to reports from the Argentine and New South Wales, Australia, which would interfere with harvesting. Buenos Aires, however, was 1-8 to 1-4 cent lower at noon.

World wheat shipments last week higher than for the same week a year ago, but about the same amount lower than the previous week. Clearances totaled 10,794,000 bushels.

Nov. 1 and 2 Northern closed 18 and 12 1/2 cents above the November future. Durum eased fractionally. Coarse grain futures seemed to be in a lull. A few speculative orders lifted type from bottom levels of more than 2 cents below September's close. Rye ended 1-1 to 1-3-4 down; oats, 1-2 to 1-1-8; barley, 5-8 to 1-8 and flax, 1-2 to 1-3-4.

Jane Dixon Says:

IF ALL YOUNG MARRIED PERSONS PRACTISED THE TWELVE RULES OFFERED TO THIS COLUMN BY A POTENTIAL HUSBAND, THE DIVORCE COURTS COULD CLOSE THEIR DOORS.

A young man has undertaken to discuss youth and marriage for this column.

We appreciate his thoughtfulness in sharing his conclusions with us.

Dear Miss Dixon: I've been reading some articles about love, and they interest me a lot. I agreed with your view on the subject in a recent column. I doubt whether very many young people know what love really is. At least, I doubt that they know whether they love one another truly.

When two young people go together and are in love, they believe that marriage is the greatest institution in the world. And so it is, if their love is real and if they are right for one another.

At this time, in their courtship, all their talk is of how happy they will be when they are together for always. Marriage, they believe, is a continual state of happiness. Many of them even believe they can live on love and romance.

They marry, and for a while everything is as they dreamed. Then they are faced with difficulties, with troubles large or small, and the outlook changes. Dreams are shattered as if they were driven by an irresistible force. The dreamers find they are not as free as they would like to be; they haven't as much time for themselves. They are so concerned about individual happiness that they forget to try to make one another happy. Married life becomes monotonous. They see their single friends having the good times they—the married ones—must forego.

All the sacred vows, all the promises of "forever after" are forgotten, and the two, no longer one, take separate roads in a search for a new happiness.

Here are some rules I figure would help young people to stay happy though married:

1. Love for each other.
2. Same likes and dislikes.
3. Desire to be helpful to each other.
4. Same religion.
5. Time out for play together.
6. Cheerfulness, no matter what.
7. A fair income.
8. Health and sobriety of both.
9. A comfortable place to live, made as attractive as possible.
10. Willingness to work.
11. Co-operation.
12. Consideration for one another at all times.

I believe young couples about to marry should have marriage explained to them, frankly and clearly, and that marriage and divorce laws should be uniform in every state.

So many of us young people are more and more impatient. We expect things to be easy for us, and when they are not, we can't take it. If chances of a happy marriage are to grow better instead of worse, our elders must help us to know and face its problems, and we must help ourselves.—Young Man J. H. Jr.

Comment: If all young marrieds practised faithfully the twelve rules herein offered by a potential husband, the divorce courts could close their doors, turn the locks and throw the keys out the window. There would be no tearful brides going home to mother, and no irate bridegrooms banging doors and threatening things when they take off for work in the morning.

Thanked, Young Man J. H. Jr. Your list should be a part of every bride couple's household equipment.

Face Charges of Smuggling Arms

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 22 (AP).—Walter Stauffer, great-grandson of President Zachary Taylor and member of an old and prominent Louisiana family, and three other accused faced charges of violating the United States Neutrality Act, in an alleged plot to smuggle arms and ammunition into Honduras.

Arraigned before a United States commissioner, all were released under bond.

THUGS BEAT MAN IN SAANICH HOME

Claude S. Young, Belgrave Avenue, Robbed of Wrist Watch by Unknown Burglars

Attacked and robbed of a gold wrist watch by unknown assailants as he lay in bed at his home on Belgrave Street, Saanich, at 4:30 o'clock yesterday morning, Claude S. Young, sustained a badly bruised face, a black eye and a lacerated nose.

Chief Allan Rankin, Sergeant P. K. Cummings and Constable C. F. Pearce, who investigated the attack, found the assailant had entered Mr. Young's home by forcing open a window on the ground floor. They pounced upon Mr. Young in bed and pummeled him with their fists, apparently in an attempt to render him unconscious. In the darkness he was unable to see their faces or count their number. After taking the wrist watch and a pair of binoculars, the thugs departed through the window they forced open. In their haste, they dropped the binoculars on the ground.

Chief Rankin was of the opinion that the assailants knew Mr. Young, and had been in the house before the attack.

Canvasser's brave struggle against STOMACH PAINS

THE writer of the letter below was in perpetual pain from stomach trouble, till he tried Maclean Brand Stomach Powder. Today he is a sound, healthy, happy man.

Canadians everywhere report relief from gas, indigestion, burning, acid stomach, cramping "wind", almost from the first dose. Quickly they lose their dread of eating. Maclean Brand Stomach Powder helps to neutralize excess acidity, coats the inflamed stomach lining so that the stomach regains its normal activity.

"My job as a canvasser requires, above all, looking and being pleasant. Can anyone imagine suffering from gastric trouble? After 4 years of continual suffering, my job was getting me down. I was losing weight. One day I bought Maclean Brand Stomach Powder. The relief was so great I decided to carry on with it and great I can eat anything I fancy and my job is a pleasure."

INDO-CHINA IS NOT IN DANGER

Japanese Intrusion Through Siam Discounted by Sir Robert Holland

Though France may believe Indo-China is seriously threatened by Japanese influences, working through Siam, that is not the case, in the opinion of Sir Robert Holland, K.C.I.E., C.S.I., C.V.O., former judicial adviser to the Siam Government, and previously, for many years, a prominent member of the Indian Civil Service.

In an interesting address given before members of the Geyo Club in the Empress Hotel yesterday, Sir Robert described something of the history of Siam, and traced events leading to the abdication of King Prajadhipok, March 2, 1935.

The revolution, the speaker declared, was confined mostly to the capital, and was based upon the wishes of the Siam people to strengthen their army and navy, and to raise the status of the nation. While trade with Japan had increased enormously, Sir Robert stressed that fact that Siam had been invaded by the Japanese many years ago, and that the incident had not been forgotten. Further, there were possibly 2,000,000 Chinese in the country, who were certainly not sympathetic to Japanese aims.

GREAT POWERS INTERESTED. Again, he pointed out, should Japan become too greatly interested in Siam, they would come into conflict with Great Britain, the United States and Holland, who would immediately aid France. In addition, he drew attention to the fact that the Government had British advisors, and all Siamese who had positions of influence in the civil service had Chinese ancestry.

Sir Robert was introduced by Major H. Cuthbert Holmes. Others who made brief addresses were P. R. McClement and W. L. Davis. Mr. McClement, asked to comment on the recently-submitted report of the Fuel Commission, declared three minutes was wholly inadequate to cover a subject which had taken the commission two years to prepare. Mr. Davis spoke on the local community concert plan.

TRUSTEES QUIT SCHOOL BOARD

Resignations of W. C. Moresby, K.C., and Mrs. D. L. MacLaurin in Effect

At a special meeting of the School Board, yesterday afternoon, resignations of Trustee W. C. Moresby, K.C., and Trustee Mrs. D. L. MacLaurin were accepted with regret. They will take place immediately, and not at the end of December, as originally planned.

The following resolution in regard to teachers' salaries was passed by the board:

"That teachers be assured the board never contemplated at any time abolishing a teachers' salary schedule, that teachers be further advised the board wishes to amend the schedule in its present form, and will recommend to the incoming board that this duty be undertaken at the earliest possible time; that teachers be advised also the usual increments, due to a number last September, will be paid."

Unofficial Wife
CHAPTER XXIII

In love with Robert! No, not "in love"—that was the wrong description; she loved him—just that—but the whole meaning of life seemed embodied in the simple words.

She had been "in love" with Basil Loder and it had passed, a pathetic, imitation of love which had taught her wretchedness and disillusionment, but which never in its best moments had reached anywhere near to the heights of this new discovery, which seemed to be right above the world—apart from the world.

It was useless to try to think coherently, or to analyze her feelings; she had no control over what had happened—it was as if someone had taken away her independence of thought and action, and had said: "For the future you are me, do you understand? I have taken you body and soul."

She walked on aimlessly; impossible to go back to the flat until she was calmer, well—where then? for the future it would be the only place she could call "home" and even that was only a temporary affair not to be counted upon too surely.

She turned into a tea shop and ordered food she did not want. Funny that she had been so sure when she woke up that morning that something was going to happen. Premonitions were so often correct. Two things had happened—two things which might change the whole current of her life—her father's death, and this amazing, humiliating knowledge that she loved Robert.

She had been so confident that no man would ever again have the power to stir her heart; it was as if she had walked blindly into a trap from which there was no escape.

"I suppose you are married!" Her stepmother's shrewd question came back to her mockingly.

Suddenly she realized it was half-past six. She was some distance from home, but she walked the whole way dreading lest Robert had asked Joan into the flat and she might still be there.

Perhaps Joan had often visited him in the past, or would that be something which her conventional mind would not permit?

Was Robert just a little in love with her? He must be surely, to have wished to spend a whole long day in her company.

Where had they gone, she wondered. Down into the country perhaps, Sybil thought wistfully that it was a long time since she had seen woods and fields and little high-hedged lanes. Lovely to spend a whole long day like that with someone you loved? Her sensitive imagination ran on, showing her little pictures of herself and Robert together.

Then she was back at the flat; the porter was opening the lift gate. "Mr. Harwood has been asking for you, madam," he told her. "He came in an hour or more ago and asked if I had seen you, and just now he came down again to inquire."

Sybil wanted to ask whether Robert was alone.

She opened the flat door with her latch key, but tonight Robert did not come forward to welcome her, though she knew by the smell of tobacco that he was somewhere about. She went straight to her room and took off her hat and coat.

Yes, she was tired—terribly tired—she kicked off her shoes and sat down on the side of the bed, staring at the floor. An ugly carpet, she thought.

For the first time she wondered

TRAFFIC SIGNS TO BE ERECTED AT SHAWNIGAN

SHAWNIGAN LAKE, Nov. 22.—The monthly meeting of the Malahat Board of Trade was held recently in the S.L.A.A. Hall, with a good attendance of members. In the absence of the president, W. Mudge, the chair was occupied by H. E. Hawking, vice-president. The business of the evening dealt mainly with the reading and discussion of the month's correspondence.

In response to repeated requests from the Malahat board, the assistant district engineer promised to install "slow" signs in the village in the near future. No assurance was held out by the Minister of Public Works in connection with the realignment of the Victoria cut-off road.

A report from the secretary of the Associated Boards of Trade was read and discussed. The report dealt with the progress made by the special resolutions presentation committee, authorized by the last annual convention.

KILLED IN PISTOL DUEL

HENDERSON, Ky., Nov. 22 (AP).—Byron Tinson, fifty, and Graham Raymond, thirty, were shot to death Saturday in what Police Sgt. Edward Brown said was a pistol duel in front of a pool hall operated by Tinson a short distance from police headquarters.

New Airship Is Near Completion

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22 (AP).—The German Government, undaunted by the disaster May 6 to the airship Hindenburg, hopes to resume experimental dirigible flights to the United States next year. Designed as a sister ship of the ill-fated Hindenburg the "LZ-130," is nearing completion at Friedrichshafen, Germany.
